A humanitarian convoy of ships carrying thousands of tons of supplies and hundreds of politicians, activists and journalists.

It was not by accident that most of those killed and injured were Turkish nationals who were aboard ships.

The back-up plan may be to initiate a limited war that could provoke a military coup d'état and regime change.

Turkish Prime Minister Recep Tayyip Erdogan has already described the Israeli attack as "inhuman state terrorism".

How should Muslims respond to this latest act of manifest Israeli provocation?

Muslims around the world must first make the case that mankind should not and cannot condone Israel's piracy.

They should then launch a do-or-die struggle to rid themselves of the pro-Israeli Egyptian, Saudi, Pakistani and other governments.

The way these governments respond to Israel's latest attack will expose the kind of response we can expect.

Such governments and Armed Forces in the Muslim world must not be allowed to continue their dirty work.

Unless and until those neo- Berlin Walls protecting the Egyptian, Saudi and Pakistani governments and
